STEVENSON NOT LIKED

Populists Refuse to Accept Him.

THE FUSIONISTS DELIBERATE Committee Will Discuss With Mr. Bryan the Plans for the Campaign.

Populist leaders may have trouble in effecting the complete fusion with the democrats which many of them hoped would be accomplished. There is no doubt that there is considerable dissatisfaction among the populists because the democrats refused to endorse Towne for vice president at the Kansas City convention. Before the populist national convention at Sioux Falls it was a sort of an open secret that the populist leaders understood that the man they would nominate at their convention for vice president would be accepted as Bryan's mate on the democratic national ticket.

It was understood that Bryan would accept Towne's nomination and that all was agreed upon. It was said at the Kansas City convention that Bryan wanted Towne nominated for vice president by the democrats, but the conservatives there won the fight, and Stevenson was named for second place.

This displeased many of the populists and now the leaders are finding it difficult to induce their followers to accept Stevenson.

Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina, the chairman of the populist national committee, is much incensed at the turning down of Towne, all the more so because the democrats defeated him and his friends at the recent state election in North Carolina, and made his re-election to the senate practically impossible.

Senator Pettigrew is also opposed to the transfer of the populists and free-silver republicans to Stevenson. Altogether there is trouble ahead for the populist executive committee, who met at the Sherman house yesterday to talk over the plans for fusion.

Ex-Senator Fred A. Dubois, of Idaho, member of the democratic advisory committee, was on hand to help assist the populist committee in its deliberations. J. G. Johnson, chairman of the democratic national executive committee, called on the populist committee during its session.

The committee held three sessions—one in the morning, a second in the afternoon and a third at night. The members of the committee refused to give any information as to what had been discussed at their prolonged conferences.

All Mr. Edgerton would say was: "There is nothing to be given out yet. After we finish our work, we may have something to give for publication." General Weaver said the outcome of the meeting would probably be a plan for fusion and that the populists will endorse Stevenson. Senator Butler was expected to attend this meeting of the executive committee. He did not come yesterday, and, further, he sent no word to the committee as to whether or not he would come. The men here were very much disappointed at his absence.

The populists will now have a conference with Mr. Bryan and the members of the democratic executive committee.

These committee men will discuss with Mr. Bryan plans for the democratic campaign, especially with reference to the part he will take in it. They will talk over the itinerary for a speaking tour for him. Mr. Bryan and his family will remain in Chicago for some days.

FATAL LEAP OF MAN AND WIFE.

Jump from a Train, the Latter with a Babe in Her Arms.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 14.—Washington Turner, a young farmer residing near Anniston, boarded the Southern railway train at that place bound for McFall, twelve miles away where he was reared. With him were his wife and baby. They had never ridden on the train before, and as the cars sped along at the rate of forty-five miles per hour they watched anxiously for the approach of their destination. Half a mile from McFall the whistle blew and recognizing their whereabouts from the scenery, Turner and his wife hurriedly left their seats, and proceeded to the platform of the coach made a wild leap for the ground, the wife clutching her babe. As the train had not slackened its speed, Turner was killed almost instantly and his wife so badly hurt that she died. The baby made a broken leg. The only possible explanation of the conduct of the couple is that they were unacquainted with railway traveling, and fearing that the train would not stop proceeded to leave it.

Native Christians Show Valor.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 14.—The Rev. Jonathan Lees, head of the London Missionary Society, arrived from Tien-tsin on the steamship Empress of India. He said that but for the Chinese converts many missionaries would have been killed. They were invaluable during the siege. They built all the barricades under a rain of bullets. He says the foreign diplomats are babies beside the wily Chinese. As an instance of how little the European representatives know of the native rulers, he said the day before Pekin was closed, Sir Claude MacDonald persuaded some ladies who were visiting him that there was no danger and they might as well prolong their visit.

A HOUSE ON FIRE.

In Tombstone Canyon, But Neighboring Buildings Safe.

At the time of going to press a fire is raging at the old frame house near Castle Rock, the property of J. J. Muhheim. It is, however, isolated and the fire brigade is doing good work.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

J. Metz, the soda water manufacturer, has purchased a handsome new buggy.

F. Layford, of Madero, stayed at the Bessemer last evening. He arrived yesterday.

P. S. C. Douglas from Clifton city arrived yesterday and put up at the Bessemer.

Max Gavito, the Mexican consul, paid a visit to Naco yesterday on official business.

James Lynch, of Omaha, is a business man of that city, who is staying at the Norton for a few days.

W. B. Hunt, of San Francisco, was among the passengers who arrived by yesterday's train.

A. S. Shibet, a Los Angeles business man, was among the guests at the Bessemer last evening.

E. A. Crawford, a mining man, who has been over here for some days, will go back to Pearce today.

W. N. Small, of El Paso, came into town last evening and registered among the Bessemer guests.

Mr. J. H. Slaughter came up from his ranch yesterday and is giving his attention to business matters in this town.

August Giesler, the well known Naco citizen, was in town yesterday attending to matters of business and visiting friends.

Mr. Crawford, the well known jeweler of Tucson, returned to that city yesterday after spending several days in Bisbee on business.

N. F. Hill, of St. Louis, arrived by last evening's train and is at the Bessemer as his headquarters while he attends to his business in town.

Jim Nichols, who is well known and extremely popular here, is now tending bar at the Azurite where he will be pleased to greet his friends.

John Bell, who at one time ran the Queen Restaurant in this city, arrived here from Colorado and Missouri in which states he has been travelling for some months.

Mrs. A. Kenney has bought the good will and furniture of the Congress boarding house in this town, from Mrs. Enright, the former proprietress. Mrs. Kenney took possession on the tenth and expects to move up to the house in a few days. She will run a first-class rooming house and her lodgers will secure a comfortable home at her establishment.

Joseph Curtis and Brab Barnar, the well known mining men and experts who went up to the claims owned by the former in North Fork Ash Canyon, returned yesterday and are staying at the Norton House. W. Curtis has put on a force of men at his mine and development work is going on rapidly. Ore is being taken out and will be shipped in a few days. The mine is looking well and no effort or expense will be spared to place the property on a paying basis. So far the ore has proved rich and the ore bodies show signs of increasing with depth. There is little reason to doubt after every careful test that this proposition will be very shortly on a paying basis. The mine is now worked night and day.

GENERAL'S MESSAGE

Is the Latest Official Intelligence.

OF ALLIED FORCES' MARCH, Armed With Latest Guns--Seek to Lay Mines in Canton River.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—A member of the cabinet stated today that no consideration would be given the promises of the Chinese government until the demands that have been made by this government are actually and fully complied with.

A dispatch has been received at the war department from General Chaffee, dated August 10, as follows: "Arrived at Hos Pi Wu yesterday." The place is about half way between Tien Tsin and Peking.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Gen. Chaffee's message announcing his arrival on August 9th at Ho Si Wu, stands as the latest official intelligence of the march of the allied forces on Peking.

English papers say it is rather annoying that their naval and military forces cannot communicate with the English officials here, while Admiral Remy and General Chaffee can do so by a Shanghai and Canton wire. Chinese reports are being scattered far and wide in southern provinces of alleged Chinese success in the north. Secret inquiries at Canton show that all forces have been newly armed with twelve centimetre disappearing guns and that the garrisons number 18,000 men in all, armed with Mausers and Winchester. The Chinese have apparently been trying to engage foreign electricians to lay mines at the entrance to the Canton river.

INDOORS NEW WAIST SHIRT.

Leading Officials Wear It, Mayor Ziegenheim Selecting Patterns.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 14.—The shirt-waist fad has struck St. Louis. Yesterday the assistant prosecuting attorney of the second district police court appeared in a beautiful rose-colored shirt, and today the dispensary physicians and city hall officials generally followed suit.

Shortly before noon the four courts was rung up, and a demand of Chief Campbell for police protection on the ground that C. G. Schroeder was refused dinner in a restaurant because he appeared without a coat. A club has been formed by the physicians and employees of the dispensary, the object being to popularize the shirt-waist as an article of masculine attire. When Schroeder's experience became known dismay reigned in the hearts of the "advance thinkers," and the telephone was utilized to insure them a square meal, police protection being promised.

At the city hall Carl Unger, Henry Beech, Lon Jones, Fred Ziegenheim, and George Brand appeared in waists of varied hues, making the place look like a tropical garden.

Mayor Zeigenheim has endorsed the waist, and says that within the next few days he will follow the example of the younger officials.

CIRCUS DURING THE SIEGE.

Performances Are Uninterrupted by the Shelling of Tien-Tsin.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 14.—The steamer Argyl, which left Yokohama July 19, brings word of the desperate enterprise of a circus manager, who was killed at the siege of Tien-tsin.

All the while the siege was going on, Warren's circus was performing in the beleaguered city. The company reached Tien-Tsin in June, going up with the Russian troops from the coast, according to the story told by Nils Moller, who with his daughter, Mrs. Stradling, reached Shanghai on July 6th, on the steamer Mathilde. The cosacs piled into the band wagon and on the top of the animal wagons, to rest their weary feet from the arduous march.

The circus got circulars printed at the office of the Pekin and Tien-Tsin Times on June 13, and the next day "the biggest, best and most triumphant circus that had ever reached Tien Tsin, the most illustrious amusement enterprise that ever hit the road, teeming with new and sensational feats, and uproarious mirth" was ready for business.

The big tent was put up in a vacant lot, pink lemonade was made and peanuts roasted. There was no care for the fact that the big Chinese "Long Tom" was pumping shells into the town. It was hard to down the circus men. They showed all along during the siege and gave extra special performances after the relief.

The manager, Mr. Plueffer, was hit by a stray shot and killed, but the show went on, and it was not until after the band had played "God Save the Queen" and the audience had filtered from the tent that the dead man was found.

TERRORIZED BY THE TROOPS.

Conduct of Colored Soldiers Alarms Residents of Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Aug. 14.—The anxiety experienced by the inhabitants on account of the alarming attitude of the soldiers of the colored regiment stationed here, has been to some extent allayed by the precautions which have been taken by order of the governor. The soldiers have been forbidden to enter the limits of the town, or, in fact, to leave Prospect camp after dark.

Metal Quotations.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Copper quiet, brokers, 16; exchange, 16.50. Lead dull, unchanged.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

Last Night of Cooley Season. East Lynne, the Play.

Last night this company sprang a surprise on the audience that assembled at the opera house, and to those who had only seen them in the drama, it proved their great versatility.

In the opening farce, Lieutenant Jack, Mr. Cooley, in the title role, did as perfect acting in light comedy as he did in the heroic line in melodrama and that is saying a good deal.

Miss Hale in a character that called for life and vivacity was fully at home and helped materially to make the play a go. Her dress was neatness itself.

As Jack's jealous sweetheart, Miss Kingsbury was in her element, and gave a most excellent performance.

Mr. Armour was a valuable aid to the others and entered fully into the spirit of the piece. It was fun from beginning to finish and put the audience in rare good humor.

Mixing up of things kept the audience in a continuous good humor. In the alvo, the anvil song with anvil accompaniment, by Mr. de Lacy, made a decided hit and he received a well merited encore. Mr. Ballentyne's fine baritone songs were received with marked favor.

A humorous skit by Mr. Platt and Miss Francis, was well received. Miss Francis received a number of encores for her very clever dancing.

The surprise of the evening was Mr. Cooley in song and cake walk, Miss Francis assisting. It was a clever performance, the more so to those who had only seen him as the hero of the drama.

The closing piece, a clever sketch cleverly played by Mr. Cooley and Miss Kingsbury—The Mistakes of the Telegram, and the Jealousy of the Wife—caused no end of fun. Characters of this order, we should say, are most decidedly in Miss Kingsbury's line for she was more than clever in it.

Tonight for the final performance will be produced that great emotional drama "East Lynne," a play that has caused more tears to flow than any other dozen plays combined. Women will go and weep over the sorrow and sin of Lady Isabel, and in their innermost hearts forgive her; but all is not sorrow in East Lynne, for there is a vein of comedy running throughout the whole play—so laughter and tears come mingled.

TO THE GOLD FIELDS.

Plan to Build a Railroad from Port Clarence, Alaska.

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 14.—A gigantic enterprise that will open up one of the richest sections of northwestern Alaska has just been launched at Nome by a syndicate of New York and Nome capitalists. A railroad is to be built from a point in Port Clarence to Golofin Bay, tapping in its course the vast inland mineral country back of Cape Nome.

L. D. Ross, formerly of Cripple Creek, representing the New York capitalists, has made a trip over the route and has strongly recommended it to the syndicate. A large surveying party will be sent out at once. The road will be about 400 miles long and cost $15,000,000.

A Confessed Murderer.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 14.—Rosslyn Farrell, the confessed murderer of Express Messenger Lane, will be taken tomorrow to Marysville for trial. He still maintains he was alone in the crime.

HUNTINGTON IS DEAD

Railway Magnate Expires Suddenly.

IN THE BLUE MOUNTAINS.

Retired Apparently in Good Health, but Was Victim of Heart Trouble.

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Collis P. Huntington, president of the Southern Pacific railroad, died at Pine Knot Lodge camp in the Blue mountain region early this morning. Mr. Huntington was out into the woods last Thursday afternoon and was in pretty good health. He retired last evening at 11 o'clock apparently in the very best of health, and so far as can be learned slept soundly as no disturbance was heard from his room until a short time before his death. Moans proceeding from Mr. Huntington's room aroused members of the household and they immediately went to his assistance. In about 10 minutes he was dead. It is supposed death was caused by heart trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—H. E. Huntington was Mr. Huntington's personal representative in this city and it is thought here that he will succeed to the management of his Uncle's vast possessions.

FIRES CAN BE SEEN

For Four Hundred Miles in Each Direction.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 14.—For four hundred miles in each direction from Glenwood fires can be seen. If the dry weather continues the destruction of government timber, as well as that on private land will be beyond the possibility of estimation.

YELLOW FEVER RAGING

In Havana. Fifty-Nine Cases Have Been Reported.

HAVANA, Aug. 14.—There are fifty-nine cases of yellow fever in this city, and this dreaded scourge is reported to be increasing. Every effort is being made to isolate the known cases and to prevent the epidemic from increasing.

A PITCHED BATTLE

Between Posse and Bandits. One Robber Killed.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 14.—A pitched battle occurred near Graham, N. M., between a posse under Deputy Sheriff Foster and two bandits. One of the robbers was killed. The other was wounded, but escaped.

"Cap" Hatfield Fights Duel.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 14.—"Cap" Hatfield, the desperado, and the man who has more notches on the stock of his gun than any other man in the mountains of West Virginia, is again in the public eye. For nine months the officers of the law have in vain sought him, and it now turns out that when he escaped from jail in Mingo county he fled to Cuba. Finally, broken in health, he returned under an assumed name to West Virginia.

In McDowell county he has worked peacefully in a timber business conducted by a Cincinnati firm. A day or so ago nobody knew or suspected that the good natured laborer was the fearless Hatfield. Hatfield and Wilbur Curtis became involved in a difficulty. Curtis, having some whisky, thoughtlessly offered Hatfield a drink from the smaller bottle. Quick as a flash the old mountaineer threw the bottle to the ground and demanded the larger. Curtis refused and the Hatfield man attempted to force Curtis to deliver the whisky. Curtis drew his revolver, fired, and the twinkling of an eye "Cap" had drawn his revolver and the duel was on. Both men fell. Curtis was shot in the neck and Hatfield in the abdomen.

There will be a meeting of Court Bisbee, No. 3833, I. O. F. this evening, at the opera house, at 8 o'clock. Visiting brothers are cordially invited to attend.

George D. Steatson of Chicago, who represents John V. Farwell the great wholesale merchants, has been for some few days in town taking orders. He has displayed his goods in the empty store next the Capitol.
